A detailed LEGO Technic assembly featuring a grey motor at the back, connected to a series of black gears. A black pulley is visible on the right side, and a black rubber band is stretched across the gears. The assembly is built using various grey and black Technic bricks and connectors.
